

CREATIVE MEASURES SUSTAINING WORSHIP AND BIBLE STUDY

Several Virginia District congregations are streaming services online during this time of quarantine and social distancing. Some congregations are posting on their church websites; some are broadcasting through Facebook, and others are using meeting software such as Zoom. Be sure to download the application needed to view services in the format the specific church is utilizing in advance of the service times, where applicable.

Please advise us of your online streaming and so on by e-mail to ehedliner@aol.com.
